

CRIMINAL CIRCLES

The Only Ones in Which Business Seems to be Lively Now.

THE NUMBER OF CASES YESTERDAY

Shows that the Epidemic of Lawlessness is Growing Worse Instead of Better—Major and Minor Offenders Reported, Tried, Convicted or Punished—"Elephant" Wilson Goes to the Pen, as do Three Moundsville Men.

Yesterday morning Walter Madison sold to James A. Filan a mattock and a pick-axe, new and bearing the label of Warwood Tool Company, for forty cents. This aroused Filan's suspicions, and he sent for Officer Moran, who, in the absence of any positive evidence of crookedness, arrested Madison for selling without a license. Madison said J. W. Miller, who tampered the tool at the factory, gave him the pick. He had also a grubbing hoe, all very fine goods. Officer Minkemeyer soon after brought in Miller, who was very drunk. He said Mr. Heiskell, of the company, gave him the tools. Mr. Heiskell was sent for, and said he had never given Miller any of the property. The two men were detained in the lockup until last night, when Mr. Heiskell said that he concluded not to prosecute, and the men had to be let go.

THREE TO THE PEN.

Moundsville Malefactors Received their Sentences Yesterday.

The Marshall county circuit court is in session at Moundsville, Judge Campbell on the bench. Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Mathews brought William R. Capper before the judge, and Capper confessed to breaking into the stores of Lancaster & Crow and J. L. Lutes, at Glen Easton, on the 14th of last month. He received a sentence of two years in the penitentiary. Two colored men, George Hicks and Parren, who have been in jail for two weeks, were also brought in. They were charged with breaking into railroad cars near Reilton, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, some time ago. They, too, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary.

S. M. Marling, of Cameron, indicted for throwing stones at Conductor Carney, for putting him off his train at Roby's Rock last week, for being disorderly, also pleaded guilty to assault and battery and was fined $10 and costs.

Ben Slump was given twenty days in jail for petty larceny. He also confessed. He was an accomplice in the gang who broke into Tony Warner's meat house over a year ago and stole a quantity of meat.

Fought the Officer.

Yesterday afternoon three or four boys got into a big row on the Second ward market square, and a report reached headquarters that a riot was going on. The wagon was sent up, and meantime Officer West arrested Fritz Jordan and a big fellow named Miller. Jordan fought West fiercely, and had to be pounded a little before he could be subdued. His nose was broken and he was plentifully spotted with blood when he and Miller were locked up. The others got away.

Forfeited His Bail.

The trial of Charley Myers, charged with embezzlement by the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad company was set for Monday at St. Clairsville. He failed to appear and his bond was forfeited. His bondsman were Harrison Bettis, C. W. Kuehuck, August Miller and Charles Seabright. The bond was $500.

On Three Charges.

Louis Dittmar was given a hearing at the jail office last night by Squire Gillespie on charges of assault and battery, breach of the peace and profane swearing, preferred by Fred Warner, Dittmar's son-in-law, and was remanded to jail in default of fine and bond.

Officer Murphy's Slayer.

William Wilson, the showman convicted at St. Clairsville of manslaughter, was taken to the Ohio penitentiary Monday. His case will be taken to the circuit court, but if his attorney fails he will have served several months of his sentence and if they win he will be as well off as in the county jail.

Personating an Inspector.

Yesterday Chief of Police McNichol arrested Eugene Cotts on a peculiar charge. Complaint was made that a man, alleged to be Cotts, went around claiming to be a sanitary inspector. He would visit premises and order the vaults cleaned, and then offer to do the

A Helpless Invalid.

I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for three months and I feel that I am cured. I feel better now than I have for sixteen years. I thank God first, for my health, and C. L. work cheaper than anybody else. In this way he selected his own work, and had a very effective way of securing orders. He denied that he is the man, and will be given a chance to prove his innocence in this morning's police court.

ARNETT DISCHARGED.

The Other Two Young Men Charged With Robbing Bachellet Held.

Yesterday afternoon at the county jail office the three young men accused of parloining from Louis Bachellet, the upper Market street saloonist, a quantity of wine, Eugene Arnett, Harry Hill and George Schell, were given an examination before Justice Gillespie. The examination of a number of witnesses showed a pretty clear case against Hill and Schell, but young Arnett was discharged, the state being unable to prove he was implicated in the robbery.

Colonel Arnett appeared for the three boys and Squire Gillespie conducted the case for the state. The first witness was Louis Bachellet, the proprietor of the place robbed. He testified that a quantity of wine had been stolen and some overturned on the floor of the cellar. Louis was right in his bearings as to what city and county he lived in, but when asked in what state he resided, he replied:

"Dunno if I know."

Bachellet further testified that the amount of wine taken was ten or eleven gallons, valued at $1 10 per gallon. The boys got into the cellar by the door at the front, but he did not know which of the young fellows took the stuff.

Annie Keim, the keeper of a house of ill fame in Alley C, was called, but her only testimony was that she knew nothing of the robbery.

Annie Reynolds, who lives across the alley from Bachellet's place, testified that on the morning when the robbery occurred she was getting ready to go to market when a noise outside attracted her attention. She looked out the window and saw Schell standing by the open cellar door, and also saw young Hill pass up several bottles of wine from below. The boys started up Market street, when she opened the window and called to them to stop or she would call the police, but they paid no attention to her. On being further questioned she said she knew and identified both Schell and Hill; she did not know Arnett, and when pointed out to her said he was not there. There were four in the crowd, and of the two she did not know one was tall and broad shouldered and wore a cap, while the other was small.

Colonel Arnett—You know Eugene? Was he there?

"No," answered the young woman.

Officer Jake Watson was called and said all he knew was what Herbert had told him. He had seen Schell, Hill and another boy not yet captured going down an alley about 4 o'clock, an hour before the robbery took place. He did not see Arnett with the boys.

Annie Keim testified she saw Schell, Hill and two other boys before the robbery, but that young Arnett was not one of them.

The state rested its case, and Colonel Arnett, after a consultation with the square, did not introduce any testimony. The justice then discharged young Arnett, saying: "Gene, I am glad to say you are discharged. I also want to say the associations you keep are hurting you, and you should break away from them before you get into serious trouble. You are a spotted man and will be until you break away from evil companions."

Schell and Hill were held to await the action of the grand jury in $500 bonds.

Cleaning Out the Neighborhood.

Chief of Police McNichol has issued orders that all houses of ill fame or questionable resorts on Tenth street and on Chapline near Tenth must be cleaned out absolutely by April 1. This is on account of the proximity of Lincoln school to that locality. The presence along the approach to the school of several resorts of vice has been a source of great complaint in the past, and now that the new school house is nearly ready for occupancy it has been determined to reform the neighborhood.

Harry Temple at Work.

Harry Temple, the bigamist, now in the county jail, has been at work ever since his confinement there, compiling the big contract he was working on for a Martin's Ferry firm when arrested. He has his canvas stretched on the walls and the other prisoners are much interested in watching the progress of his work. His wives, No. 1 and 3, have both gone to the home of No. 1 at Washburn, Ind., until his trial comes up in the criminal court, March 26.

For Burglary and Robbery.

Yesterday Dan Crumbacker, one of the five boys recently indicted for robbing Hassenauer Bros., confectionery store, in East Wheeling, went before Squire Gillespie and swore out warrants for five men on a charge of complicity in the same robbery. Officers Creighton, Buch and Damm arrested George West, Harry West, Ed. Diehl and Joe Raucher, four of the five. Raucher was locked up, and the other three went out to Squire Gillespie's house and gave bail in $500 each for their appearance to-day.

Robbed by a Boarder.

William Burrell, a colored waiter who lives on the hill, was robbed yesterday by a boarder, who got away safely with several suits of clothes, a clock and other goods. He is supposed to have taken a Baltimore & Ohio freight train for the east over the Hampfield division.

Ohio Authorities Should Hurry up.

So far no requisition has been received from Ohio for Ben Frazier and "Pudding" Lowry, in jail here as fugitives from justice over the river, and accused of the cruel assault and robbery of which old John Parker was the victim, out in Belmont county, on February 22. If the papers do not arrive in a few days now the two prisoners will have to be discharged from custody.

Two Plain Cases.

In the mayor's court yesterday Ed Rogers was arraigned for selling songs on the streets without having a pedler's license. He was allowed to go on condition that he would leave town. William Long, for disorderly conduct on the South Side, was fined $1 and costs, which he paid.

Petty Cases Yesterday.

Yesterday Jessie Cotts had a quarrel with a hackman about a bill for $1 she claimed he owed her, and she was locked up. Later she got out on paying $7, which included costs.

Tony Moran was in the public building yesterday, and in going out the south entrance stumbled and fell clear down the steps. He was too drunk for the fall to hurt him much, and Lieut. Terrill put him in the cooler to sober up. Jack Scott was arrested last night by Special Officer Tom Burns, of the Baltimore & Ohio station, as a vag.

EX-MINISTER TO AUSTRIA.

Hon. John M. Francis One of the Thousands Whom Paine's Celery Compound Has Benefited.

Among the men of international reputation in America no one deserves better of his country than Hon. John M. Francis, ex-minister to Austria.

The highest political honors have come to him unsought. President Grant appointed him minister to Greece. President Garfield had chosen him for the mission to Belgium. President Arthur appointed him minister to Portugal, and in 1884 he was promoted to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Austria-Hungary, with a residence at Vienna.

At the last New York state election Mr. Francis was chosen one of the fifteen delegates-at-large to the constitutional convention, which is to sit in Albany next summer, and his majority was the largest on the state ticket.

Mr. Francis is conspicuous among the really great editors of to-day as the founder, editor and proprietor of the Troy Times, which he has made a live, enterprising, clean and popular paper, and one of the ablest and most influential exponents of republicanism in the country.

The life and labors of Mr. Francis present one of the most attractive and instructive objects which one can contemplate. Industry, conscientiousness, absolute fidelity to duty, and preference for a high plane of moral conduct have been conspicuous traits of his character. They were the adequate guarantee of the eminent success that has crowned his efforts, and of the tribute of esteem that is paid to him.

Mr. Francis, though he has reached the palmist's allotted three score and ten, is in excellent health, and mentally vigorous and alert. The first of this year he went to California with his daughter to spend a few months.

Before going he requested Mr. William B. Wilson, who, under Mr. Francis and his son, Hon. C. S. Francis, is the wide-awake head of the business department of the Times, to say for him to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound: "I have used the medicine moderately and with favorable results."

The expression is characteristic of the dignified and conservative gentleman who, as last fall's vote shows, is in the right sense the most popular citizen of the empire state.

Mr. Wilson himself, writing an unsolicited letter to Wells & Richardson company, says of this wonderful remedy that makes people well:

"For some time past I have been using Paine's celery compound as a nerve and tonic, and have found its effects very beneficial. I have heard and know of its good work among my friends, several saying that they 'could not keep house without it,' and never allow their supply to become exhausted. I shall always stand ready to say a good word for Paine's celery compound, for I honestly believe it will do all that is claimed for it."

Among the thousands of testimonials that come to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound every year, are letters from grateful men and women in every station in life. Little did Dartmouth's great professor realize the greatness of his benefit to mankind when he first prescribed this remedy that makes people well, and in the spring months—March, April, May—is as much superior to all the ordinary tonics, nervines, and sarsaparillas as the diamond is more brilliant than a piece of glass. It is the best spring medicine in the world. It makes people well.

It is the true specific for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system and impure blood. It is a positive cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For the latter Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

The medical journals of this country and Europe have given more space to the many remarkable cases where the use of Paine's celery compound has made people well than to any other one subject.
